“ Mr. Williams and his late wife Mrs. Williams were my next-door neighbors for over 23 years. I enjoyed talking to them. Mr. Williams will be missed. He was a good neighbor. I'm going to miss seeing him on the porch listening to his jazz music and planting his flowers and plants. He had a garden and always shared his tomatoes with me. I will miss him. He was a true friend.

“ Mr William and his late wife Mrs Williams was some of the best and friendliest neighbors you could ask for. They were always pleasant, helpful . They were courteous kind I could always count on them to watch out for my home when away . Mr Willian's always share his insights on what was happening in the world and in the Black Communities. He was very intelligent and we shared awesome conversations. I will truly missed him and his presence always looking out for the neighborhood. He greatly enriched my life and family lives . My girls loved talking with him when they came back home to visit and my wife and him would talk on the porch a lot and he was the first person to check on her after her stroke. He will truly be missed . Gone but not forgotten.
