“ Dear Family,

Rosa is my Mother, Louise Harris Scott's, first cousin. Many childhood memories of being at my grandparents' home in Rougemont include Rosa, her Mother Aunt Thennie and Uncle Howard. My Grandmother, Lena, was like a Mother to Rosa's Father, Howard. My Mother, Louise, was the only girl in her family. So, the ties that bound our families were strong and full of memories about sharing vegetables from each other's gardens, eating my Grandfather, Odelle's brunswick stew, worshipping at New Harris' Grove and simply keeping in touch with one another. Anyone who knew Rosa, knew the same soft-spoken, and mild mannered woman that she was. Rosa and my Mother were both precious only girls in their families...and they both were Daddy's girls who modeled the grace and work ethic of their Mothers. I and my sisters and brother send love and prayer of comfort to Rosa's family from knowing hearts about a time such as this.

Sending Best Wishes for Strength and Peace..
