“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ I was so fortunate to have been given Rosie's name for the "Share Your Christmas" benefit last year. She was such a joy and great story teller. I took her all around downtown and she gave me such joy as she told me how it used to look. We went by her florist shop on Parrish Street. More good stories! We also went to a Christmas concert at the library. I brought her a Thanksgiving plate and she insisted on sharing it with others at her table. We threw her a little birthday party and brought a turkey which again she shared with the entire dining room. One day I brought her a beautiful red sweater, cut her hair and put on some lipstick and she paraded around like a proud peacock! She was a bright spot in so many lives. I will truly miss her.
