

Mrs. Ruby Jones

March 9, 1940 - October 31, 2021

Ruby Jones was born to the late Mr. Tootie Brown and Ms. Ruth Elliott in Durham County, North Carolina on March 9, 1940, and departed this life on October 31, 2021, at Duke University Hospital.

Ruby graduated from Hillside High School in 1957. She lived all of her adult life in Durham County where she met and married Mr. Harold Jones and they went on to raise her one and only child Ella Mims. She worked as a seamstress at Burlington Mills in her early adult life, and at Duke laundry the remainder of her adult years until her retirement.

Ruby was a member of a bowling league where they participated in many tournaments and won several trophies. She enjoyed coaching the communities minor league softball team, taking cruise trips, family events and church events. Ruby was a member of New Bethel Missionary Baptist church where she sang in the Gospel Jubilee Choir.

Preceding her in death are her loving husband Harold Jones, Jr., her father Tottie Brown, and mother Ruth Elliott; two sisters, Julia Holeman and Marie Winston; and brother, Lawrence Elliott.

Ruby is survived by her only child Ella Mims; brother, Raymond Elliott (Julia Elliott); brother-in-law, Henry Rines; three grandchildren, Tianda Mems, Kiera

Mems and Kelsie Washington; seven great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends. Along with one special friend Ida Ferrell.
