“ The children of Edna and Jesse Meadows send our deepest condolences to the entire Owens family on the passing of Mrs. Allene.

I will always remember the street light coming on and hearing both Mrs Allene and my mother Edna Mae both calling in unison for us to come home. I remember swinging in the yellow porch swing, sitting in the kitchen with my best friend Sheila while Mrs Allene made grape Koolade with real lemons in the glass pitcher. Mr Huey singing a tune in the living room and the smell of dinner in the oven. I remember the clothes line, the ditch that separated our houses, the shed, the downstairs apartment... the love and respect, and how they all said, yes ma'am momma when they answered her. I remember how pretty and regal she looked on Sunday morning going to church at Lincoln Memorial. I remember her stare when we were too loud in the back of the church. I remember her house dresses, simple and comfortable. She was the epitome of strength which continues to be evidenced in her children, grandchildren and great grand children.

Praying for continued strength for all of you doing this time.

We love you all!

“ To the Owens Family:

I am deeply saddened to hear the news about Mrs. Owens passing. Some of my most treasured childhood memories are of her outside on the church grounds, always being generous with her warm smile. She was consistently kind and regal.

My wish for your family is that you feel surrounded by much love, peace, comfort, and strength on the long difficult days. May the Owens' family-be comforted by the lasting, loving legacy she leaves behind.

“ Grandmama was sweet, gentle and kind. She would tell Jonathan ‘sit down and eat something boy!’ They would laugh heartily together. She shined brightest when she shared memories of Granddaddy during their youth and their 62 years of marriage. While I didn’t grow up around her my whole life, I am thankful we got to develop our own personal relationship over the last several years. I love you and will miss you Grandmama. Tell Granddaddy I said hey!

“ My deepest condolences to the Owens family in the transitioning to heaven the soul of Mrs. “Allene”.
I’ve always admired her, exuding a beautiful glow and smile. I first met her around my 2nd grade year when I became close friends and classmates with Gail. I was in and out the Owens home almost daily through those formative years. Mrs. Allene was indeed a family woman and homemaker. Everyday, she would be in the kitchen cooking and making biscuits. I had never seen so much food cooked at one time and the number of biscuits were many.
As a person, Mrs. Allene was very friendly. She embraced me as a member of the family. She and Mr. Hughie were a team to be admired. I could go on an on but will end by saying, “Who Can Find A More Virtuous Woman...?”

“ We all are aware that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord and that we all must transition from labor to reward. Although we know these things it does not negate the fact that when a love one is no longer with us, it brings us sorrow. One thing that brings me peace is knowing the legacy that Mother Owens has left behind. I will cherish our laughs, talks and will miss her calling me "gal" or saying "don't fool me now" when ever I said "mama I will be by to see you". She enjoyed me calling her to ask how to cook a dish and I was amazed at her strong memory. The Owens Family has not loss a jewel because when you lose something you don't know where it is. We know where she is resting. Rest In Heaven Mother Owens.
