“ I'm very sorry about the loss of your loved one. Remember the Bible's promise at Isaiah 25:8. May Jehovah comfort you during this difficult time.

“ Although, I never met Sandra, undoubtedly she was loved and admired by many. Therefore, coping with the loss can be emotionally challenging. Although we can't change what has happened, we can focus on a positive future. We can look forward to those who have fallen asleep in death being awakened to better conditions here on earth. (John 11:11-14) Until that time, we can continue to cherish the fond memories we have of our loved ones who are also in God's memory.

“ Apostle James (Jimmy) Newton and family, When I first met you and Sandra at the Senior Center downtown I knew there was a special gift the two of you shared with each other and with the world. It was a joy to see you two sharing the love that God wants us to know by loving him and loving each other. May God continue to bless and comfort you as you.

“ I first met Sandra at a Raleigh Woman's Aglow meeting. and GLOW she did! Sandra loved the Lord, her husband and family in that order. She reflected the love and compassion of the Lord to all she met. I remember that after having even a brief conversation with her, I would get the desire to strive for the excellence I saw in her. I shall never forget Sandra.

I send my heartfelt sympathy to her husband Apostle James Newton and all the family.

May God give you peace that passes all understanding

“ Saundra was so special to our family. She worked with our son Caleb at DTA for many years, helping him to feel more comfortable in his body. He loved her, and so did we. God's Peace, Saundra--we know you will keep watching out for Caleb and all your many loved ones. Love, Becky and Michael
