“ Mrs. Wheeler worked with my father Harry L. Bryant who was principal of Highland Junior High. She was a faithful "family friend;" especially during my father's illness. She truly became a great friend of mine during our conversations each morning during our daily ride to Highland Jr. High School after my father passed. I found out about her passing recently. She was a lovely, classy lady, who will always remain a friend in my heart. Mona Bryant-Shanklin.

“ Dear Warren,
My sincere condolences for the loss of your Mother. You played beautifully for her today. She would have been so proud of you doing this for her. It has been many years since I have seen or spoken to you but I wanted you to know that I remember you and that you are in my thoughts and prayers today. We last spoke during my time with the US EPA.
