“ Hello to the Brown family and Lawson family; I am a very old friend of Shirley. I once shared an apartment with Shirley years ago at Dule Manor after her sister married she had a extra room I lived with her for a few months until I was able to get my own place. Shirley was such a kind and loving person. I am very sorry to hear of the losss of your loved one. I was visting in Durham not too long ago for the holidays. I often think of you all when I pass thru club blvd. Jessie,Dianne, Archie and all the rest of the family, we shared many good times years ago. You are never forgotten.

“ Sincere condolences to the Brown Family in the passing of your beloved Shirley. Yes, she was my classmate at Merrick Moore High School and at Winston Salem State University. A sweet, sweet spirit, but remember that nothing catches God by surprise and the joy of the Lord is your strength. So glad to truly know that she is praising God in heaven where we all want to go.

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. May the comforting promises from God ease your pain during this difficult time. One of which is found at Isaiah 25:8. There it says "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

Again, please accept my sincere condolences for your loss.

“ My condolences to the Brown family. I am sincerely sadden to learn of your lost.

I had not seen Ms. Brown, since about the summer of '87. During the spring of 1984, Ms. Brown was nice enough to have hired me, as a Library Page at the Stanford L. Warren Library (Durham County Libraries) while I was a student at North Carolina Central University. She always had a pleasant demeanor and assured of the direction that the Library Branch would follow during her leadership as the Library Director at the Warren Branch.

I hope that her family, friends, and former colleagues are able to cherish the memories of this very nice lady.

Shirley and I were classmates from elementary through high school. She was always with a smile and that is how I shall always remember her. I cherish the times we shared as classmates and girlfriends; growing up in Braggtown; experiences with Project Opportunity; home economics class and the entire high school experience. My sincere condolences to the Brown family. Gwen Daye Hodges, Class of 1970
