“ So sorry for the loss of your mother. She and I taught together at Holloway Street School. I remember her smiling face whenever she and I would talk. Her dedication to her profession was inspiring and an indication of much she was devoted to her students. Pray daily for continued strength during this difficult period in your lives.

“ Condolences to the Faison family especially to the Faison daughters. I remember your mother from the WG Pearson Elementary School where we worked together on third floor. Ms. Faison taught 5th grade. She was always jovial and smiling and the children loved her. Always cherish your fond memories of her. May our Heavenly Father strengthen and keep you in the days to come.
