

Mrs. Tammie Smith-Goodman

May 18, 1962 - July 28, 2022

Tammie Smith-Goodman, daughter of the late Norman Lee Smith and Doris Burch Smith, was born May 18, 1962, in Durham, North Carolina. She departed this life on July 28, 2022.

Tammie was educated in the Durham Public Schools, graduating from Hillside High School in 1980. She worked several years at Northern Telecom. She later entered the medical field enjoying careers in Clinical Research and Nursing whilst dealing with her own health challenges. She was employed by Atria Senior Living at the time of her passing.

Tammie was an original member of Bell-Yeager Freewill Baptist Church, following the legacy of her grandparents. She served on the mother board at Bell-Yeager. It was there that she cultivated her passion for helping others, especially youth. Tammie was a very loving, kind, and giving person who never met a stranger. Her recent passions were centered around decreasing violence in the Durham community, fueled by the loss of her own child.

She was preceded in death by her son, Charleston Prentice Goodman and brother, Norman Lee Smith, Jr.

Left to cherish her memory are her husband Charles Goodman, Sr.; one daughter, Rikela Smith; two sons, Charlie Goodman, Jr. and Matthew Goodman; three sisters, Carolyn Webb, Norma Smith, and Brenda Burch; three brothers, Kendall Smith, Kimball Smith, and Michael Burch; four grandchildren, Kamron Smith, Taylah Smith, Cherish Goodman, and Brennan Edwards; and a host of faithful family and friends.

Services to honor and to celebrate the life of Mrs. Tammie Smith-Goodman will take place on Monday, August 8th, 2022, at Bell Yeager Freewill Baptist Church, 128 E Cornwallis Road, Durham, North Carolina 27707; with viewing beginning at 12:00 noon and the service at 1:00 p.m.

Interment will take place at Glennview Memorial Park, NC Hwy 55, Durham, North Carolina 27713.

Please keep this family in your thoughts and in your prayers.

I am so heart broken 💔😞😞😞 I lost my sister 💔😞😞 and I'm not able to be there but She knows my heart is forever hers. Tammie you were my light during my darkest times and you prayed and had God bring me back to the light. My prayers are with the family now and forever. I've lost another part of my heart and it 💔😞 hurts.

“ To the Smith/Goodman family, my condolences goes out to all of you. I will keep everyone in my prayers. You know when I first met Tammy, I was soooo nervous, and my Kimball said to me "just calm down you gone be alright. She's going to love you". When I say that she was just the sweetest, and made me feel like part of the family. She had the biggest heart, a heart of gold. I say to you sister in law Rest Easy Sweetie....Rest Easy.

We are sorry for the loss of your Mother Tammie Goodman. She was a beautiful flower that was created by God. It was a joy to see her come in church along with her children. She had the radiance of God's Angel, smiling, giving you a hug and want to know how have you been. Mother Tammie, a beautiful flower that God saw fit too bring her back to his loving arms. Mother Tammie, the Angels swung the chariot down for you to step on board so you can ride too your Heavenly Home. We love you but God loved you best. Brenda and Tekurah Boyd
