“ My condolences to the family of Mr. Thomas McCauley,

I have never met you before, but the pain of death I share with you. When I lost my Dad, it wasn't just being around family and friends that gave me comfort. God's Word was the pillar of my support. Knowing the condition of the dead as Jesus so tenderly said at John 11: 11-14. & John 8:28,29 is so encouraging, amazing assurance from God that the dead will live again. The promise of no more sickness, death, nor the pain it causes, Revelations 21:4. Yes, The Bible, is one of the best gifts God could give to us. It teaches, us so much that can benefit us now and in the future. I hope you will look at these scriptures in your copy of the Bible and it comforts you the same as it has me.

*My deepest sympathy,
Elizabeth*
