“ I am saddened to hear the loss of Mr. Joyner. I have fond memories of him when I worked in Management Office South Square Mall. He was a good person and cared about people. May the memories shared by loved ones and friends bring you comfort. Memories are the bandages for the heat. Vikki Grossman

“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, it is my hope your family will find comforting the promise at Isaiah 25:8 where we are assured that "death will be swallowed up forever." It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ To the Joyner Family

May it comfort you to know that Thomas is now at peace. In ways big and small Thomas life changed our world and left it a better place and touched too many hearts to ever be forgotten. May you find comfort in knowing how many people share your sadness?

May the peace God's promise offers help to ease your grief today. And may He always be beside you as you go along life's way. Saying goodbye to a loved one is surely one of life's most difficult tasks. There are no words powerful enough, no music soothing enough to ease your pain at a time like this. But I know you will find consolation in knowing how much you loved and cared for each other. The precious memories of time you spent together will heal you and make you whole again. And you will understand what a blessing it was to have shared in the life of someone you loved so much. Though you say good bye for now, it is only until you meet again someday.

When absent from the body means Thomas in the present of the Lord.

Do not fear, for I am with you; Do not anxiously look about you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, surely I will help you, Surely I will uphold you with My righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10
