

Mrs. Wanda Joy Irene Mohammed Dalton

March 25, 1949 - July 1, 2016

Mrs. Wanda Irene Joy Mohammed Dalton was born March 25, 1949 in New Rochelle, NY to Doris Marable (formerly Mohammed) and Frank Mohammed, Sr. Wanda was raised by her mother Doris and her husband Colonel, who Wanda technically referred to as “Daddy”. Wanda entered into eternal life on July 1, 2016, at Moses Cone Hospital in Greensboro, NC.

Wanda was a wonderful mother to not only her very own three sons, nineteen grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many other children in the community. Wanda never met a baby she didn’t immediately love and try her best to “spoil them rotten”. Her home was open to all kids in her community and all who knew Wanda loved her. She had a smile and laugh that would light up any room and never hesitated to exhibit that “stern motherly love” when needed and all who experienced it knew it was time to “straighten up and fly right” or else... Later in life, Wanda met and fell in love with Robert Lee Dalton and the two were married on September 11, 1998.

Preceding Wanda in death were her brother Guy Branch and sister Sally Mohammed.

She is survived by her husband Robert Lee Dalton of Eden, NC; mother, Doris Marable of Eden, NC; father, Frank Mohammed Sr. (Janice) of Greenwich, CT, three sons, Vaughn C. Howard, William M. Kisem Burch of Elmsford, NY, Treavor L.
