“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ Many day's my sister and I have spent countless hours in and out of the Harris house! The favorite house in the neighborhood because there was always someone your age to talk to, play with and the rest of the neighborhood kids were there why...because they were the black Brady bunch so many kids!! LOL We would see the Pontiac Station Wagon go up the street and laugh because there were so many heads!!

Love you all hang in there!

“ One of the fondest memories I have of Mr. Harris was him coming to our bus stop, which was at the bottom of his drive way, and reciting the Lord's Prayer. He started our day with praise of Jesus. This is how I learn to recite that prayer. To this day, I am ever so appreciative.

To my high school friend Angelia, your siblings and family members, please know that the thoughts and prayers of all the Quick family are with you. Love, Niecy Quick

“ To Ms. Wanda Harris Higgins and the entire family of Rev. Weldon Harris:

It is with our deepest heartfelt sympathy that we share these condolences with you. It is good to know that Rev. Harris was a servant of our Most High God. He is taking a long awaited rest and getting a reward that is out of this world. Let us meet him in heaven in the sweet by and by. You are in our prayers and thoughts at this time.

In the love of Jesus Christ,
