“ Eugene and I were always in the same “home room” at Pisgah High School and he always kept me laughing (which sometimes got us in trouble)

It grieves me to hear of his passing!

May God’s love comfort his family.

“ Will miss my first cousin. As young children, him and my other first cousins, Robert, Deb, Sandra, Carol and, David from Canton, often visited us (the Riddick Clan) in Elizabeth City. We always ended up at our grandmother, Rosa's house where we played together. Eugene's dad and our mom were brother and sister. So many memories to hold on to. Let's keep Eugene's memories alive. He will forever be on our minds and in our hearts. He knew he was loved.

“ Eugene was a classmate of mine at Pisgah High School and as one of the Eggleston kids, he was friendly, smart, talented and very good looking. I saw Mom Eggleston a couple of years ago and she was so proud of her children and rightly so. May the good memories give comfort as you say goodbye to this fine man.
