“ I'm sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Jehovah God promises that very soon death and all sorrow will be a thing of the past.

Revelation 21:3,4. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. "

Also, he promises that there will be a resurrection. This real hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again is found at Acts 24:15.

I hope the promises of the Bible can bring you and your family comfort during this difficult time.

“ On behalf of the Peterson/Ryals/Robertson Family, we send our condolences to the Caesar family. "Pee-Wee" as we know him, will truly be missed. But we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

I remember the days on Geer Street, when Pee-Wee would be sitting on the front porch (across the street from our house), just enjoying the outdoors and my grandmother would be walking out our front door. Pee-Wee would jokingly holler across the street, saying "Mrs. Peterson, where you going". That would tickle my grandmother so much and her response would be something like "on a walk with Jesus". Those two loved joking with one another. But most of all, Pee-Wee was like a part of our family and we are truly thankful to God to have known him.

Our prayer is that the family will keep his memory in your hearts and allow God to be your Comforter. We love you!
